

Kenyatta Lewis

Executive Director of Supplier Diversity

Kenyatta is the Executive Director of Supplier Diversity and oversees enterprise-wide supplier diversity initiatives, sustainable procurement and Global Procurements' training & development programs. For more than 18 years, she has successfully designed, implemented and expanded MGM Resorts' world-class supplier diversity program to include new developments and acquired resorts. This award-winning program has spent over $4 billion with certified diverse owned businesses since 2000. In 2016, Kenyatta developed a customized 6-month mentorship program which pairs MGMs certified diverse suppliers with MGM Resort executives and provides critical business coaching to elevate overall business efficiencies. As a resident expert in Supplier Diversity, Kenyatta is recognized nationally for her knowledge, dedication and innovative approach to coaching and connecting diverse suppliers through the procurement process. Most recently she received the Community Builder & Igniter Awards from WRMSDC. Additionally, Kenyatta manages the Company's environmental preferable purchasing program to track environmental impacts within the supply chain. Most notably MGMs oyster shell recycling program where she coordinated routing more than 1.6 million oyster shells into the Chesapeake Bay to replenish depleted coastal oyster reefs.

Kenyatta currently serves as co-chair of MGM Resorts' Interfaith Employee Network Group and a charter member of Disability: IN's newest Nevada Affiliate and ISM's Sustainability Committee. She has served as Chair of the Clark County Regional Business Development Advisory Council, Board Secretary for the Western Region Minority Supplier Development Council, Chair of The Consumer Working Group, Hospitality Industry Group, Advertising, Entertainment Media & Sports Working Group, National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development Resource Council and The United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's Purchasing Advisory Council. Additionally, she served two terms as secretary of governing board at Andre Agassi College Preparatory Academy.

Kenyatta holds a bachelor's degree in Business Management and served 8 years in the United States Army Reserves.

In addition to her professional responsibilities, she leads various youth and outreach ministries within the church her husband pastors. Kenyatta is a native Las Vegas and proud mother of 2 sons and 1 granddaughter.
